BEYOND IRAQ The Future of World Order

edited by Amitav Acharya (American University, USA) & Hiro Katsumata (Waseda University Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies, Japan)

"An excellent volume that analyzes the 2003 Iraq War and its implications for global and regional orders. The chapters, all by prominent scholars, address the micro- and macro-level changes brought about by the ill-conceived war. They offer valuable suggestions to rectify the challenges posed by the war. A must-read for all those interested in global and regional order in the current and emerging international system."

T V Paul
McGill University

This book examines not only immediate military strategies but also ideological implications which can have long-term consequences for the region.

INFRASTRUCTURE REGULATION: WHAT WORKS, WHY AND HOW DO WE KNOW?

Lessons from Asia and Beyond edited by Darryl S L Jarvis, M Ramesh, Xun Wu & Eduardo Araral, Jr.

(National University of Singapore)

Regulation of public infrastructure has been a topic of interest for more than a century. Yet, despite the proliferation of new modalities of regulating infrastructure little is known about what works and why. Why do certain regulatory regimes fail and others succeed? What regulatory designs and institutional features produce optimal outcomes and how? And why do regulatory forms of governance when transplanted into different institutional contexts produce less than uniform outcomes? This book addresses these questions, exploring the theoretical foundations of regulation as well as a series of case studies drawn from the telecommunications, electricity, and water sectors. It brings together distinguished scholars and expert practitioners to explore the practical problems of regulation, regulatory design, infrastructure operation, and the implications for infrastructure provision.

WHO SHALL LIVE? Health, Economics and Social Choice (2nd Expanded Edition)

by Victor R Fuchs (Stanford University, USA)

"Victor Fuchs is the most perspicacious, prolific, influential — and durable — of the small cadre of economists who founded the field of health economics. Who Shall Live? created something of a sensation when it was first published. Its messages resonate today, and it behooves anyone seriously interested in health and health care to devour its wisdom. Prof Fuchs continues to offer new ideas, filled with insight, that demand attention from America's health care policy makers. His analysis of health reform and his 'comprehensive cure' should be required reading for every state and federal legislator, and for every citizen who cares about the future of our country."

Kenneth E Warner, University of Michigan

In this classic book, Professor Victor Fuchs draws on his deep understanding of the strengths and limitations of economics and his intimate knowledge of health care institutions to help readers understand the problems every nation faces in trying to allocate health resources efficiently and equitably.

World Scientific Series on Human Security - Vol. 1 HUMAN SECURITY: FROM CONCEPT TO PRACTICE

Case Studies from Northeast India and Orissa
edited by Amitav Acharya (American University, USA),
Subrat K Singhdeo (Madhyam Foundation, India) &
M Rajaretnam (Asian Dialogue Society, Singapore)

This book suggests new practical applications of the human security concept, such as human security mapping, the human security governance index and human security impact assessment. Using Northeast India and Orissa as case studies, the methodology introduced in this path-breaking book can be applied to conflict zones worldwide. By designating the individual rather than the state as the referent object of security, human security is emerging as a framework that can serve as a means to evaluate threats, foresee crises, analyze causes of discord and propose solutions entailing a redistribution of responsibilities.

POLITICAL PARTIES, PARTY SYSTEMS AND DEMOCRATIZATION IN EAST ASIA

edited by Liang Fook Lye (East Asian Institute, National University of Singapore) & Wilhelm Hofmeister (Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Singapore)

This book describes how democracy is evolving in East Asia and how it assumes different forms in different countries, with political parties adapting and evolving alongside. It has a two-fold intent. First, it contends that the existing variety of party systems in East Asia will endure and may even flourish, rather than converge as liberal democracies. Second, it highlights the seeming political durability of one party systems - unlike two-part or multi-party systems in the US and Europe - and their enduring predominance in countries such as Cambodia, China, Singapore and Vietnam.

APEC AND THE RISE OF CHINA

edited by Lok Sang Ho (Lingnan University, Hong Kong) & John Wong (East Asian Institute, National University of Singapore)

Intra-regional trade has been rising rapidly, especially after China's accession to the WTO in 2001. China's economy is expanding rapidly, and has already passed Japan in 2010 to become the world's second largest economy. It is clearly producing a huge impact on the world economy, and particularly on ASEAN countries. This book is based on papers presented by scholars with expertise in the Asia Pacific region at a conference on "APEC at 20 and the Rise of China" organized by the APEC Centre of Lingnan University on 26-27 February 2010, and includes additional invited papers.

CHINA AT 60 Global-Local Interactions

edited by Lai-Ha Chan (University of Technology, Sydney, Australia), Gerald Chan (University of Auckland, New Zealand) & Fung Kwan (University of Macau)

"How China's internal arrangements — economic, social, political, cultural and so forth — interact with its ever-advancing global presence is among the most important questions we can deal with today. All too often, we place this master question in the too-hard basket, finding excuses to stay within our comfort zones where we can deal with self-contained fragments of it. The book strives to get back to the master question. Any attempt to do this is to be applauded; this work helps all of us to get out of our comfort zones and broaden the scope of our inquiry."

Series on Contemporary China - Vol. 28 CROSS-TAIWAN STRAITS RELATIONS SINCE 1979

Policy Adjustment and Institutional Change Across the Straits
edited by Kevin G Cai (University of Waterloo, Canada)

"A holistic, judicious and timely treatment of the complex cross-Straits relations for anyone to gain a comprehensive understanding of Taipei and Beijing's policy deliberation and adjustment since 1979. The high-quality analysis and sophisticated insights in each chapter present a vital road map for readers to learn how both sides managed to navigate the twisting-and-turning path in the past and what opportunities and challenges lie ahead."

CHINA-ASEAN SUB-REGIONAL COOPERATION Progress, Problems and Prospect

edited by Mingjiang Li (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore) & co-editor: Chong Guan Kwa (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)

This book is an edited volume about China-ASEAN relations with contributions from experts based in China and Singapore. It discusses and analyzes China-ASEAN cooperation in the Greater Mekong River Sub-region (GMS), the emerging Pan-Beibu economic zone, ASEAN's growth triangles, and the hydraulic power sector, as well as China-ASEAN economic relations in the wake of the financial crisis. They carefully review the progresses that have been achieved, examine new policy proposals that have been put forth, and explore problems that exist in all these sub-regional cooperation schemes between China and ASEAN.

ASEAN MATTERS!

Reflecting on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations

edited by Yoong Yoong Lee (National University of Singapore)

ASEAN Matters! Reflecting on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations carries essays with different perspectives on critical issues relating to the three pillars in building the ASEAN Community, namely the ASEAN Political and Security Community; the ASEAN Economic Community; and the ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community. In a nutshell, this book provides broad and invaluable insights into the role ASEAN plays in enhancing peace, prosperity, and stability in the Southeast Asian region.

Written in a highly accessible style, the contents include both a thorough review of current issues and a succinct overview of the past and future direction of ASEAN. The book reiterates the continued and strengthening relevance of ASEAN, 43 years after its founding.

THE TRANSFORMATION OF POLITICAL COMMUNICATION IN CHINA

From Propaganda to Hegemony

by Xiaoling Zhang (Nottingham University, UK)

"In this well-researched book, Dr Xiaoling Zhang examines great driving forces behind the transformation of China's media industry such as marketization, globalisation and new media technologies, and how this transformation has generated the growing tensions between economic growth, globalisation and political control. The book provides the reader with a vivid picture of how the battle between the Chinese Communist Party and social forces is being fought. Dr Zhang has made a great scholarly contribution not only to the field of media studies, but also to other fields such as sociology and political science. I am sure that the book will certainly deepen our understanding of contemporary China."

GOH KENG SWEE

A Public Career Remembered

edited by Barry Desker & Chong Guan Kwa
(S Rajaratnam School of International Studies, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)

Dr Goh Keng Swee was Singapore's first Minister for Finance from 1959 to 1965 who initiated Singapore's first industrial estate now known as Jurong Town. He was also the first and longest serving Defence Minister after Singapore became independent in 1965, responsible for building up the Singapore Armed Forces from scratch. Later he became Minister for Education in 1981 and revamped the education system to what it is today. While Dr Goh's public career and achievements are well documented in press reports and archival records as well as in photographs and speeches, what is missing is an insight and exposition of Dr Goh as an individual in his various roles. Goh Keng Swee: A Public Career Remembered seeks to provide this missing dimension of Dr Goh as a person to work for. He was truly a Singaporean for all seasons.

ECONOMIC POLICY MAKING AND BUSINESS CULTURE

Why Is Russia so Different?

by David A Dyker (University of Sussex, UK)

"In this thoroughly documented and accessible book, David Dyker shows the origin and history of the problem of unstable norms, which has permeated the Russian economy. In doing this he demonstrates that we cannot understand an economy outside the context of its historical roots. This book is a tour de force of how the Russian economy has become what it is today. It is an indispensable read for scholars, students and businessmen interested in Russia and will remain one of the key readings on the subject for years to come."

THE TRANS-PACIFIC IMAGINATION

Rethinking Boundary, Culture and Society

edited by Naoki Sakai (Cornell University, USA) &
Hyon Joo Yoo (University of Vermont, USA)

This anthology critically re-examines and re-articulates the discursive boundary that binds the region called East Asia in order to produce Trans-Pacific studies. Recognizing that the creation of regional boundaries depends on a new configuration of both inter- and intra-national power relations and the ideological constructs that generate historical, ideological, and cultural effects, this volume proposes that the term "Trans-Pacific" be mobilized to complicate the phrase "East Asian" as the boundary of academic discipline and socio-cultural discourse.

Advanced Research on Asian Economy and Economies of Other Continents - Vol. 7

EU-ASIA AND THE RE-POLARIZATION OF THE GLOBAL ECONOMIC ARENA

edited by Lars Oxelheim

(Lund University & Research Institute of Industrial Economics, Sweden)

At the end of the 1980s, a tri-polar world comprising the US, EU and Japan emerged. Nevertheless, the economic turbulence of the early 21st century has destabilized this old order and the rise of other Asian powers has implications for the formation of a new economic configuration. This book discusses the probability of the different tentative global economic power balances to emerge, as well as the different contestants: the EU, China and Japan, among others.

CHINA INTO ITS SECOND RISE

Myths, Puzzles, Paradoxes, and Challenge to Theory

by James C Hsiung (New York University, USA)

This book seeks to demystify the re-ascendancy of China as a civilization state. It also contrasts China's development with that of the West and Japan. The book traces the rationale for contemporary developments in China to the roots in the country's tradition as well as foreign influences and seeks to unravel the puzzle about the unique China Model that defies conventional thinking in political economy, with its sustained and incredibly rapid economic growth over the past three decades.

JAPAN'S STRATEGIC CHALLENGES IN A CHANGING REGIONAL ENVIRONMENT

edited by Purnendra Jain (University of Adelaide, Australia)

& Peng Er Lam (National University of Singapore)

Japan faces significant challenges in both traditional and non-traditional areas of national security policy as the economic resurgence of China and the loss of US hegemonic clout significantly transform the strategic landscape of the Asia-Pacific region. How is Japan coping with this new global and regional politico-security environment? What strategic moves has it taken to best position itself for the future to maximize its global and regional influence? More importantly, how is Japan perceived within the region by traditionally close regional partners such as the US and Australia, by supporters in Southeast Asia, and by new competitors - most prominently China and India? What international role do these nations wish Japan to play? In this comprehensive volume, these crucial questions are explored in-depth by a group of scholars both distinguished and diverse.

Towards Greater Energy Security

edited by Elsbeth Thomson (Energy Studies Institute, National University of Singapore),

Yongho Chang (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore & National University of Singapore) &

Jae-Seung Lee (Korea University)

As East and Southeast Asia continue to modernize and urbanize, their demand for energy will soar. Besides seeking to import fossil fuels from the Middle East, Africa, the Caspian Region, Russia, Latin America, Australia, etc., it is imperative for these Asian countries to cooperate in substantially raising the efficiency with which energy is consumed. This book offers a comprehensive examination of East and Southeast Asia's energy conservation policies.

BURMA OR MYANMAR? THE STRUGGLE FOR NATIONAL IDENTITY

edited by Lowell Dittmer

(University of California, Berkeley, USA)

Burma, also known as Myanmar, strategically located between China and India, is one of the largest and most richly endowed states in Southeast Asia. Yet it remains both economically and politically underdeveloped. Written from a unique perspective, this book on Myanmar deviates from the traditional authoritarian versus democratic rhetoric. Although that is certainly part of the picture, this multifaceted analysis focuses rather on the issue of identity formation - an issue that has all too often failed to make the headlines. Much can be learned from Myanmar's identity problems, making this book essential reading for all students and professionals interested in development studies or comparative politics. By whatever name, Burma is not only a fascinating country but one likely to play an increasingly vital role in Asia's future.

NEW DYNAMICS BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN IN ASIA

How to Build the Future from the Past?

edited by Guy Faure (CNRS, France)

This book is a study of ties between China and Japan and their Asian counterparts. It does not therefore directly treat bilateral relations between these powers, as these already constitute the subject of many other studies. A lengthy perspective has been taken into account in order to recall past legacies, some of which are still painfully contentious, and to record evolutions in attitudes and strategies vis-à-vis Asian countries.
