

Pookong Kee is Director of the Center for Asia Pacific Studies and Professor of the Graduate School of Asia Pacific Studies at the Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University. He has held a number of senior academic, government and other positions in several Asia-Pacific countries. A Malaysia-born naturalized Australian, his PhD in psychology is from the Australian National University.