

Xu Jianguo is currently CEO, chairman, and executive director of Shanghai Electric (Group) Corporation. He has also held such previous appointments as vice secretary-general of the Shanghai Municipal Government and director of the Shanghai Municipal Economic Commission.

He holds a MA in economics and is a senior economist. He is also an adjunct professor and graduate advisor at Shanghai University of Finance and Economics. He is the author of Market, Mechanism, Capital, and Talent — Basic Issues State-Owned Enterprises Face in Entering the Market and over 20 scholarly articles. He has also supervised the compilation of ten books including Report on the Industrial Development in Shanghai and Report on the Commercial Development in Shanghai.