

Karin Iris Sixl-Daniell is a Director of The Cuscaden Group Pte Ltd. She holds a PhD in Economic and Social Sciences (Business Administration) from the University of Graz, Austria, as well as a Masters' Degrees in Economics from the same university and a Masters' Degree in Health Care Management from the Danube University Krems, Austria. She is multilingual and has received numerous grants and prizes. She is Member of the Regional Advisory Council to the INSEAD Financial Education for Women initiative FinEdX.

Dr Sixl-Daniell currently runs her own research and advisory business in Singapore and is an Assistant Professor and Subject Area Coordinator at U21Global, a consortium of 18 research-intensive universities worldwide (including the University of Virginia, The University of British Columbia, McGill University, the National University of Singapore, the University of Hong Kong, the University of New South Wales, the University of Melbourne, the University of Queensland and others) that delivers graduate programmes online. She is accredited by the member universities to teach Organisational Behaviour, Human Resource Management, Strategic Management and Managing International Business at U21Global and is responsible for the integration of these subjects in a joint programme on Entrepreneurship and Family Businesses with the Indian Institute of Management in Bangalore (IIM-B).

Prior to moving to Singapore, Dr Sixl-Daniell was Assistant Professor and Deputy Head of the Institute of International Management, University of Graz, Austria. She also co-founded a start-up business focusing on the export of gourmet products and served on the board of directors of the company.

She is member of the Academy of Management, the Strategic Management Society, the Academy of International Business, the European Association for Chinese Studies, the European Association for South-East Asian Studies, a founding member of the International Association for Chinese Management Research and the German Association for Asian Studies.