

---

Contents

|                                                                                                        |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Prologue                                                                                        | v         |
| Preface and Acknowledgement                                                                     | xi        |
| List of Abbreviations, Acronyms and Units                                                       | xix       |
| PART 1 INTRODUCTION                                                                             | 1  |
| 1 The History and Development of Aviation MedicineViktor Harsch                             | 3         |
| PART 2 INTERNATIONAL STANDARDSAND REQUIREMENTS                                             | 29 |
| 2 ICAO International Medical Standardsand Recommended PracticesClaus Curdt-Christiansen | 31        |
| 3 Federal Aviation Administration — Aviation MedicineWarren S. Silberman                    | 41        |

|                                             |                                                                                                                                                                           |            |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 4                                           | Joint Aviation Authorities (JAA) and European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) — Medical Requirements for Pilots in EuropeJoerg Siedenburg and Annetje Roodenburg | 53         |
| PART 3    PHYSIOLOGY AND RADIATION   |                                                                                                                                                                           | 69  |
| 5                                           | Fundamentals of Aviation PhysiologyDietrich Wirth and Ekkehart Rumberger                                                                                       | 71         |
| 6                                           | Cosmic Radiation Exposure of Flight CrewsLutz Bergau, Rainer Facius and Matthias M. Meier                                                                      | 151        |
| PART 4    PREVENTION                 |                                                                                                                                                                           | 171 |
| 7                                           | Physiology and Pathophysiology of NutritionHerwig H. Ditschuneit                                                                                               | 173        |
| PART 5    CLINICAL AVIATION MEDICINE |                                                                                                                                                                           | 203 |
| 8                                           | Introduction: The Role of Medical Factors in Accident InvestigationIlse Janicke, Norbert Schauer, Marcus Wieczorek and Reinhard Höltgen                        | 205        |
| 9                                           | Cardiovascular Risk FactorsNorbert Schauer                                                                                                                     | 209        |
| 10                                          | Arterial HypertensionNorbert Schauer                                                                                                                           | 227        |
| 11                                          | Heart Diseases and DisorderNorbert Schauer                                                                                                                     | 241        |

|    |                                                                                                                                  |            |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 12 | Coronary Artery DiseaseIlse Janicke                                                                                   | 255        |
| 13 | Cardiac Valve Disease/Valve ReplacementIlse Janicke                                                                   | 319        |
| 14 | Cardiac Rhythm and Conduction DisturbancesReinhard Höltgen and Marcus Wieczorek                                       | 341        |
| 15 | Congenital Heart DiseasesIlse Janicke                                                                                 | 375        |
| 16 | Vascular Diseases and DisordersIlse Janicke                                                                           | 389        |
| 17 | Ophthalmology for the Medical ExaminerRüdiger Schwartz and Jörg Draeger                                               | 399        |
| 18 | Ear, Nose and Throat (ENT) Medicine and Dentistryfor Aeromedical ExaminersJürgen Kressin and Reinhard G. Matschke | 447        |
| 19 | Neurology for the Aeromedical ExaminerJürgen Kriebel and Frank Weber                                                         | 495        |
| 20 | PsychiatryJürgen Kriebel and Matthias M. Weber                                                                        | 557        |
|    | PART 6 PSYCHOLOGY                                                                                                         | 609 |
| 21 | Operational and Clinical Aviation PsychologyKonrad Steininger and Dirk Stelling                                       | 611        |

|    |                                                                                                                 |            |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 22 | Neuropsychological Disorders After Brain Injuryand their AssessmentJosef Zihl and Herbert Jacobs | 639        |
| 23 | The Man-Man Interface in the Man-MachineSystem of Commercial Aviation AircraftReiner W. Kemmler  | 657        |
|    | PART 7 PASSENGERS                                                                                        | 665 |
| 24 | Passenger HealthPetra A. Illig                                                                       | 667        |
|    | Appendix I                                                                                               | 709        |
|    | Appendix II                                                                                              | 789        |
|    | Index                                                                                                    | 817        |