

Contents

Part I: The Chinese in Malaysia and Singapore	1
Introduction	3
1. Malaysian Chinese Society in Transition (1903–2003)	11
2. A Century of Chinese Business in Malaysia (1904–2004)	37
3. The Roles of Hokkiens in the History of Malaysia and Singapore	63
4. Kinship and Organization: The History of the Gan (Yan or Yen) Clansmen in Singapore and Malaysia (1850–1993)	93
5. The Development and Future of the Chinese Kinship Associations in Singapore and Malaysia	117
6. Reflections on My Study of Ethnic Chinese History in Singapore and Malaysia	137
7. Sun Yat-sen and the Chinese in Singapore and Malaya (1900–1911)	149
8. Tongmenghui, Sun Yat-sen, and the Chinese in Singapore and Malaya: A Revisit	177
9. Lim Lian Geok and His Struggle for the Chinese Education in Malaya (1949–1961)	211

Part II: The Chinese in Southeast Asia and Beyond	259
10. Social Change in the Ethnic (Overseas) Chinese Communities: A Historical Perspective	261
11. A Preliminary Study of Chinese Capitalism in Southeast Asia (1842–1941)	285
12. Confucianism and the Ethnic Chinese Business in East and Southeast Asia	321
13. The Overseas Chinese Nationalism: A Historical Study	337
14. Nanyang Chinese and the 1911 Revolution	361
15. Hakka Chinese in Southeast Asian History	379
16. Hong Kong, China, and the Overseas Chinese	397
17. Dr Sun Yat-sen and 21st Century China	411
Index	431