

---

Contents

---

Introduction		1
Chapter One	Is MENA Exceptional?	13
Chapter Two	State Formation, Consolidation, and Development, 1960s-1980s	39
Chapter Three	Toward Greater Use of Markets and the Global Economy?	83
Chapter Four	Oil, OPEC, and the Challenges of Surplus Management	115
Chapter Five	Water Scarcity and Agricultural Policy in the MENA Region	157
Chapter Six	Building a New Future: Development in the Post-Conflict Context and Post-Disaster Recovery	195
Chapter Seven	Is the MENA Region “Open” for Business?	235
Chapter Eight	Making Global Integration Work for MENA Countries	281

Chapter Nine	Are Market Disciplines Sufficient? Industrial Policy and Technology Transfer	325
Chapter Ten	The Keys to the Future: Human Capital Development in the MENA Region	361
Chapter Eleven	Are MENA's Labor Markets the Key to Growth?	401
Chapter Twelve	Closing the Poverty Gap in MENA	439
Chapter Thirteen	Development Assistance and Its Effectiveness in MENA Countries	473
Chapter Fourteen	Pathways to Future Prosperity	507
Index		513