

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Foreword by Professor Laurie A. Schintler	ix
Foreword by Professor Roger R. Stough	xiii
Abstract	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xix
Part 1: Introduction	1
1. Introduction	3
Part 2: Aging ...	15
2. Socioeconomic Background: Aging Population, Resulted Labor and Fiscal Crises, and the Possible Solutions	17
Part 3: Why Elderly Entrepreneurship?	45
3. Elderly Entrepreneurship to Sustain the Labor Force: Possibilities and Necessities	47
Part 4: Literature and Theories on Elderly Entrepreneurship	59
4. Literature Review: Previous Studies	61
5. Theoretical Framework	71
Part 5: Entrepreneurship of Seniors?	97
6. Age and Entrepreneurship	99
7. Social and Policy Factors for Elderly Entrepreneurship	119

Part 6: Regional Dynamics of Elderly Entrepreneurship	135
8. Regional Distribution of Elderly Entrepreneurship	137
9. The Impact of Elderly Entrepreneurship on Metropolitan Economic Growth	161
Part 7: Elderly Entrepreneurship to Mitigate Labor and Fiscal Crises	179
10. The Labor and Social Security Impacts of Elderly Entrepreneurship	181
Part 8: Conclusion...	201
11. Conclusion and Future Research	203
Afterword by Professor David W.S. Wong	217
References	219
Appendix	229
Index	259