

Contents

Preface	v
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. The Origins of China's Taiwan Policy: Managing an "Internal Chinese Issue" with U.S. Involvement	11
Chapter 2. From the Bombardment of Jinmen to the Shanghai Communiqué: Keeping Taiwan within "One China"	44
Chapter 3. From Normalization to the August 17 Communiqué: Establishment of the One-China Strategic Framework	88
Chapter 4. The Beginning of the Thaw: From the Abortive CCP-KMT Rapprochement to the 1992 Consensus	123
Chapter 5. The Coming and Passing of the Storm: Beijing Readjusts Its Approach	166
Chapter 6. From the "Two States Theory" to "One State on Each Side": Beijing Seeks Common Ground with Washington	217

Chapter 7. The Hu Jintao Period: The Inception of De Facto Co-Management of the Taiwan Issue	267
Chapter 8. Hu Jintao's Pro-Status Quo Approach: Developing a Framework for "Peaceful Reunification"	296
Chapter 9. Conclusion	342
Endnotes	355
Index	439