

Contents

Preface	vii
About the Author	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Technical Remarks	xv
Brief Historical Background	xvii
Chapter 1: The Outside World and Japanese Creativity	1
Japan's "Three-Cycle Response" for Innovative Change	1
Ig Nobel Prize Winners	5
The Most Creative of Imitators	10
Chapter 2: Perception of the World and Nature	17
Abbreviating the Nearest Space	17
Polished Simplicity	25
Material Things and Immaterial Thoughts	31
Chapter 3: Everything Has Its Own Kata	39
Addiction to Algorithms	39
The Principle of Conformity and Sense of Humor	52
Patterns of Speech	58

Chapter 4: How They Do It	63
Formalism and Self-Suppression	63
The Aesthetics of Silence	70
In Pursuit of Excellence: Tidiness, Cleanliness and Punctuality	74
Celebration and Gift-Giving	80
Chapter 5: Cultural Rituallity and Group Behavior	87
Touching Eternity	87
Masks and Rituals	95
Behavior Categories	101
Chapter 6: Japanese Service: Simply the Best	109
It's Not About Money	109
The Customer is Always Right — The Japanese Version	113
Hey, I'm a JR Passenger!	117
The Most Punctual Trains in the World	121
Chapter 7: Motives and Consequences of Incredible Service	127
Bakufu as a Driving Force of Progress	127
Side Effects of Perfect Service	134
Chapter 8: Wildlife: Natural and Cultivated	147
Domesticating the Natural World through Imitation	147
On Environmental Protection	151
Foreigners and Internal Safety	157
Chapter 9: Educational Values	165
Children and Adults	165
Group Pressure	169
Educational Standards and Uniformity	172
Sensei Means "One Born Before"	179

Chapter 10: Reluctant Workaholics	183
Encouraging Social Activity	183
Diligence versus Talent	187
Diligence: The Authentic and the Assumed	191
Paying the Price for Success	198
Chapter 11: The Unpretentious Joy of Being a Group Member	203
Japanese Balance Between Work and Play	203
The Most Common Vocation in Japan	210
Those Left Behind	215
Chapter 12: Humans Judging Humans	219
Power of God, Power of Man	219
Good Neighbors and Distant Relatives	225
From Inner Circle to Outer Circle	232
Chapter 13: Enacting Law and Justice	241
Confession — The Trump Card of Investigation	241
Looking Back at Tradition	249
Punitive Sanctions	258
Chapter 14: Preventing Crime and Educating People	263
Mentors in Uniform	263
The Police as Role Model	271
New Problems on the Horizon	275
Chapter 15: Romanticizing Suicide	283
Without Regard to Religion	283
Modern Technologies and a Sensible View of Death	293
Chapter 16: Body Language	301
Japanese-Style Movements	301
Looks and Appearances	309
The Aesthetics of Nakedness	313

Afterword	331
References	333
Personal Index	341
Subject Index	343
Japanese Glossary Index	349