

Contents

|   |      |
|---|------|
| ForewordLim Pin  | vii  |
| Editors' Note and Acknowledgements  | xi   |
| Notes on Contributors   | xiii |
| The Coming of Bioethics to SingaporeW Calvin Ho and Sylvia SN Lim  | 1    |
| The Impact of the Bioethics Advisory Committee on theResearch Community in SingaporeCharmaine KM Chan and Edison T Liu | 31   |
| Engaging the Public: The Role of the MediaChang Ai-Lien and Judith Tan   | 51   |
| Confucian Trust and the Biomedical Regulatory Frameworkin SingaporeAnh Tuan Nuyen                                      | 71   |
| The Clinician-Researcher: A Servant of Two Masters?Alastair V Campbell, Jacqueline Chin and Teck Chuan Voo                 | 89   |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The US Model for Oversight of Human Stem Cell ResearchLindsay Parham and Bernard Lo  | 109 |
| Genetics and Stem Cell Research: Models of InternationalPolicy-makingBartha Maria Knoppers, Emily Kirby and Rosario Isasi                  | 133 |
| Public Engagement and Bioethics CommissionsThomas H Murray and Ross S White  | 165 |
| Norm-making on Human-Animal Chimeras and Hybrids inSingapore, the United Kingdom and the International DomainW Calvin Ho and Martin Bobrow | 187 |
| How Will Future Bioethical Issues Engage Singapore?John Elliott  | 235 |
| Annex A: Members of the Bioethics Advisory Committee andits Sub-Committees and Working Group  | 261 |
| Annex B: Members of the International Panel of Experts  | 267 |
| Annex C: Reports of the Bioethics Advisory Committee  | 269 |
| Annex D: A Decade of Events that Shaped Bioethics in Singapore  | 271 |
| References  | 303 |
| Index   | 323 |