

Giovanni Battimelli (Voghera, 1948– ) is a researcher at the Department of Physics of Rome University "La Sapienza". His main research interests in the history of science have focused on topics in late nineteenth and twentieth century theoretical physics, and more particularly on the Italian scenario. He is a member of the editorial board of Rivista di Storia della Scienza, and has recently edited, with M. De Maria, the memoirs of Edoardo Amaldi Da via Panisperna all'America, Rome 1997.