

Rosario Gonzalez-Manalo has had a distinguished career in the Philippine foreign service. She served as Ambassador to various European capitals, among them: Brussels, Paris, Lisbon and Stockholm. Currently, she is teaching and doing research in various universities in Manila and abroad. She chaired the HLTF from January to July 2007. She was also involved in the work of the EPG as assistant to President Fidel Ramos. She has recently been appointed the Philippine Governor to the Board of Governors of the Asia-Europe Foundation.