

Walter Woon is Attorney-General of Singapore, having served from October 2006 until April 2008 as Solicitor-General. He is concurrently a Professor at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore and President of the Singapore International Law Society, as well as Judge Advocate-General. From 1992 to 1996 he was a Nominated Member of Parliament. He was also Legal Adviser to the President of Singapore and Council of Presidential Advisers from 1995 to 1997. Between 1989 and 2000 he served as a director on the boards of Intraco Ltd and Natsteel Ltd, both companies listed on the Stock Exchange of Singapore. From 1997 to 2006 he was seconded to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. During that period he was Singapore's ambassador to Germany, Greece, Belgium, the European Communities, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and the Vatican, as well as being Permanent Representative to the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons. Professor Woon is the author of several books on company and commercial law as well as two novels.